Дополнительная информация

Information for community representatives

We invite you to take part in the FESTIVAL OF URBAN COMMUNITIES and tell about your activities to those who are looking for like-minded people and are ready to try themselves in other activities.

On November 4, from 10.00 to 16.00 on the territory of Qaynar Bulaq Almaty (ALMAU University campus), you will be able to talk about your activities, show achievements and invite those who share your views and values to the community.

There are no restrictions on the subject of participants or possible activities. Offer what you are interested in and together we will be able to implement the plans.

The organizers provide a platform, equipment (tables, chairs, monitors for presentations, etc.), organize information support, invite visitors and organize tea, fruits, water.

Do you want to hold a master class? To communicate with parents of teenagers and share useful information? Do you want to invite those who are crazy about reading to your book club? And...

We are waiting for you!

More than 300 visitors, more than 100 mentions in social networks, contests and promotions.

Details and special conditions are being discussed!
